EXCLUSIVE DOWNLOAD: The May Fire - Doctor's Appointment + No Clone

It's 1996, we're walking to school with our Discman in our backpack, and the soundtrack du jour consists pretty much solely of Hole, Veruca Salt and Velocity Girl, and it doesn't even matter that we didn't do out math homework, because mid-'90s alt rock/pop was that awesome. The May Fire bring us back to those carefree days, when men were men and women dyed their hair with cheap drugstore color kits and wore really dark lipstick.

Fronted by enigmatic frontwoman Catty Tasso, The May Fire craft catchy rock songs that sounds exactly like the sunny Californian skies they were written under. So catchy, in fact, that we decided to sign the to RCRD LBL so we can release even more of their tunes. The May Fire's new EP, The List, will be released on August 5th, with a US tour beginning the day after. It's an exciting time in the band's career, and we're stoked to be able to experience them during it. The two tracks we're releasing today, "Doctor's Appointment" and "No Clone" are both from The List.
